

DRESSAGE is an AQHA approved event. AQHA will recognize these levels of dressage competition starting with the highest test in Training Level, continuing through First Level, Second Level, Third Level, Fourth Level, FEI Prix St. George, FEI Intermediate I, FEI Intermediate II, and FEI Grand Prix. Dressage will be offered and approved through USEF/USDF licensed competitions holding an AQHA approved class. Approval must be obtained through AQHA at least 60 days prior to the competition and approval fee is $50. Horse must be a registered American Quarter Horse and exhibitor must have a current individual AQHA membership. Open, amateur and youth eligibility based on AQHA criteria. A one-time license fee of $85 for the horse must be recorded with AQHA prior to the competition. The percentage score will be converted into a point value. Points will be awarded in each division and recorded on horses' records. All points are eligible for existing awards including register of merit, incentive fund, year-end high-point etc. No Incentive fund money will be awarded for Training level points earned.

BUT ...

If you earn a score of 60 percent or higher these are the points you will earn each point will be worth about $50 with the new changes in the AQHA Incentive Fund Program if your horse was enrolled as a foal. All of Indian Artbeat's foals are eligible to be in this program!

Incentive fund money is available for horses that show in regular AQHA shows too.
